REASONS FOR DENIAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

1. Records specifically exempted from disclosure by State or federal statute.
2. Disclosure would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy as follows:
 - a) disclosure of certain employment histories, medical or credit histories or personal references of applicants for employment;
 - b) disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a client or patient in a medical facility;
 - c) sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists would be used for commercial or fund raising purposes;
 - d) disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and such information is not relevant to the work of the agency requesting or maintaining it;
 - e) disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confidence to an agency and not relevant to the ordinary work of such agency;
 - f) information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compensation record, except as otherwise provided by the Workers' Compensation Law; or
 - g) other (specify): _____

3. Disclosure would impair present or imminent contract awards or collective bargaining negotiations.
4. Records are trade secrets or are submitted to an agency by a commercial enterprise or derived from information obtained from a commercial enterprise which, if disclosed, would cause substantial injury to the competitive position of the subject enterprise.
5. Records are compiled for law enforcement purposes and, if disclosed, would:
 - a) Interfere with law enforcement investigations or judicial proceedings;
 - b) Deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication proceedings;
 - c) Identify a confidential source or disclose confidential information relating to a criminal investigation; or
 - d) Reveal criminal investigation techniques or procedures, except routine techniques and procedures.
6. Disclosure would endanger the life or safety of a person or persons.
7. Records are inter-agency or intra-agency materials which are not:
 - a) Factual or statistical tabulations or data;
 - b) Instructions to staff that affect the public;
 - c) Final agency policy or determinations; or
 - d) External audits, including but not limited to audits performed by the comptroller and the federal government
8. Records are examination questions or answers requested prior to the final administration of such questions.
9. Records, if disclosed, would jeopardize an agency's capacity to guarantee the security of its information technology assets, such assets encompassing both electronic information systems and infrastructure.
