TREASURER CARPENTER ATTENDS LI2DAY BREAST CANCER WALK

Treasurer Carpenter was pleased to be a part of the Kick-Off of the beginning of the 2011 LI2Day Breast Cancer Walk at Smith Point State Park.

The LI2Day Breast Cancer Walk raises awareness and funding for the fight against breast cancer on Long Island. 100% of the funds raised by the participants are distributed to grassroots service organizations so the funds reach the members of the Long Island community affected by breast cancer.

Ginny Salerno, and her entire staff, volunteer their time unselfishly with extraordinary dedication towards the goal of breast cancer research.

“This organization certainly deserves to be commended for its dedication in providing its proceeds to research and assistance for programs. The strictly volunteer policy of its board members is amazing, “ commented Carpenter
