Legislator Hahn Visits Response of Suffolk County; Declares Suicide Prevention Week in Suffolk County

STONY BROOK, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Kara Hahn visited Response of Suffolk County in Stony Brook to present a proclamation in recognition of Suicide Prevention Week. Hahn's resolution establishing the week of September 5th through September 11th as Suicide Prevention Week in Suffolk County passed at the last General Meeting of the Suffolk County Legislature. Suicide is the tenth leading cause of death in the United States. Hahn praised the work of Response Executive Director Meryl Cassidy and her board on their efforts to prevent suicide in Suffolk County and educate the public about effective prevention measures.
