Suffolk County Legislator Tom Cilmi delivered opening remarks at the Connetquot High School Model UN competition on Saturday, February 11, 2017. The event brought together 300 students from 17 schools throughout Long Island and Queens.

Model United Nations is an educational simulation and competition during which students represent different member nations on various UN based committees. Choosing from several predetermined topics, student delegates vote on an agenda and argue their nation's position in this all-day exercise of diplomacy and international relations.

Legislator Cilmi said, "I was honored to share some words and so incredibly impressed with and inspired by the students' poise, acumen and ability to articulate their points of view. I left reassured that our Nation's future is in good hands."
