

SUFFOLK COUNTY LEGISLATURE

DuWayne Gregory, Presiding Officer

Press Release

February 17, 2015

Contact: Michael Madia

(631) 854-1111

PRESIDING OFFICER GREGORY HONORED BY BAY VILLAGE CIVIC ASSOCIATION

Amityville, NY –Suffolk County Legislature Presiding Officer DuWayne Gregory was honored by the Bay Village Civic Association at their 8th annual brunch on February 8 at the Unqua Corinthian Yacht Club in Amityville.

"It was our great pleasure to be able to recognize DuWayne Gregory. As Suffolk County Presiding Officer, he has really stepped up for the Village of Amityville," said Joan Donnison, President of the Bay Village Civic Association. "He has always been approachable and responsive to our needs. However, his recent efforts have truly benefited the residents. The Bay Village Civic Association wanted to honor him and express their gratitude."

15 Albany Ave * Amityville, NY 11701-2829 * (631) 854-1111
duwayne.gregory@suffolkcountyny.gov

“I would like to thank Joan Donnison and the entire Bay Village Civic Association for this honor,” said Presiding Officer Gregory. “I’m very happy to be able to serve the residents of the Village of Amityville by working in partnership with great community organizations such as the Bay Village Civic Association to keep it a great place to live for years to come.”

Presiding Officer Gregory is pictured with Amityville Board of Education trustee Jeannette Santos, Amityville Village Trustee Dennis M. Siry, Babylon Town Deputy Supervisor Tony Martinez, Amityville Village trustee Kevin P. Smith, Amityville Board of Education trustee Nathan King, Bay Village Civic Assoc. President Joan Donnison, Amityville Village Mayor James P. Wandell, Deputy Mayor Jessica Bernius, Former Deputy Mayor Peter Casserly and State Assemblywoman Kimberly Jean-Pierre.

###