PRESIDING OFFICER GREGORY MEETS WITH COPIAGUE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Amityville, NY – Suffolk County Legislature Presiding Officer DuWayne Gregory recently met with the Copiague Chamber of Commerce at their dinner meeting at Sergio's Italian Restaurant in Massapequa.

“It is always a pleasure to be able to participate in an open discussion with concerned county residents,” said Presiding Officer Gregory. “Organizations like the Copiague Chamber that support local business growth are essential to our county thriving as a whole.”

“DuWayne has been an exceptional legislator & leader for many years,” said Copiague Chamber of Commerce President, Sharon Fattoruso. “He has been a great supporter of our chamber and the entire Copiague community. DuWayne truly cares about the people.”

The Copiague Chamber of Commerce is an alliance of businesses, residents and organizations that are dedicated to improving the quality of life and general business environment for all in the Copiague community.
