(HOLBROOK, NY)- Suffolk County Legislator Bill Lindsay III recently presented Vincenzina Zaniewski with a proclamation commemorating her 100th birthday at a family party in Villa Lomabardi's Restaurant in Holbrook. Vincenzina was born on August 20, 1914 in Little Italy and was the fifth of thirteen children.

Vincenzina married Frank Zaniewski on December 22, 1940 at St. Fortunata Roman Catholic Church in East New York. Together they had one daughter Melinda, seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Vincenzina loves to watch Italian and Western movies, listen to Italian music from Italian-American singers, and make Italian treats for her entire family, especially the family favorite struffoli.

In addition to being a devoted wife and mother, Vincenzina also worked in the fashion and garment industry to provide for her family, so that they could enjoy a better life. She began her career at the young age of fourteen as a seamstress and after sixty years of hard work, she retired and moved to Holbrook where she has resided for the past twenty-five years.

Vincenzina believes that taking care of your health and appearance, keeping your mind and body active, and spending as much time as possible with those who surround you with love and laughter are the secrets to living a happy, fulfilling, and long life.
