(Oakdale)- Suffolk County Legislator Bill Lindsay III recently honored Edward J. Bosti Elementary School Teacher-Aide, Christine Tallman, for her quick and decisive action in performing the Heimlich maneuver on a student in distress in the school's cafeteria. Christine's courage and heroism accompanied with her knowledge of first-aid helped to ensure that this student is safe and healthy today.

In addition, Legislator Lindsay visited 3rd and 4th grade students who were participating in a ballroom dance rehearsal for their recital that evening. Lindsay briefly spoke about how the Legislature works and how exciting he was to see that Bosti Elementary pioneered a dance program that not only teaches students a unique skill but keeps them fit and active.
