NEWS FROM THE 11TH DISTRICT

BARRAGA NAMES MARIA FIGALORA “WOMAN OF DISTINCTION”

SHOWN L-R: Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga(R-West Islip) and Maria Figalora

The month of March is Women’s History Month. The Suffolk County Legislature passed a Resolution (No. 786-2002) in 2002 stating that each County Legislator shall select a “Woman of Distinction” who resides in his/her respective Legislative District to be honored by each District Office.

From the group of Legislative District honorees, the Suffolk County Women’s Advisory Commission selects a county-wide “Woman of Distinction”.

It is with great pleasure that Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) has nominated Maria Figalora as “Women of Distinction” to represent the 11th Legislative District. Ms. Figalora presently serves as Executive Vice President, West Islip Chamber of Commerce; Secretary West Islip Association; Board Member, Pronto of Long Island; Research Development, West Islip Historical Society; Organizer, West Islip Symphony Orchestra; Board Member , Islip Arts Council; member of the Oak Neck Lane Association; member of the Women of West Islip Organization; serves on the Suffolk County Citizen’s Advisory Board for the Arts.

Maria is a dedicated individual who has demonstrated leadership and commitment to the community.
