Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) recently had the West Islip High School's most advanced choral ensemble sing the Star Spangled Banner at a special Suffolk County Legislature Meeting in Hauppauge. "Many of the students are in more than one performing ensemble. They are members of the Tri-M Music Honor Society because of their high level of musicianship, academic success and commitment to community service. In the past members of this group were invited to perform at Disney World. Several of these students will be performing in the All-County and All-State music festivals this winter. This talented young group sang the Star Spangled banner and lifted the ceiling off the building. It was absolutely beautiful”-said Barraga.
