BARRAGA ATTENDS THE 30TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF THE BAY SHORE HISTORICAL SOCIETY AT THEIR ANNUAL OPEN HOUSE AND BAKE SALE

Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) recently joined members of the Bay Shore Historical Society (BSHS) in the initial celebration of its 30th Anniversary with a cake at the Open House and Bake Sale held in June. The Society, founded in 1985, is headquartered at 22 Maple Ave in Bay Shore in the circa 1820 Gibson-Mack-Holt House. The Society is open to the public free of charge on Tuesdays and Saturdays between 1pm and 4pm. Visitors are welcome to explore the extensive collection of Bay Shore memorabilia, photographs, yearbooks, displays, and materials that the Society has been collecting and archiving since its inception.
