Every March Women's History Month is celebrated in Suffolk County. Each of the eighteen Suffolk County Legislators select a woman residing in his/her district who best represents a "Woman of Distinction." A woman who is heavily involved in her community and demonstrates exceptional leadership to represent their respective districts. From the group of honorees, only one is chosen to represent Suffolk County.

Legislator Barraga (R-West Islip) named Donna Periconi "2016 Woman of Distinction" representing Suffolk County's 11th Legislative District.

Donna has resided in Brightwaters since 1974. She and her husband, Dr. Peter Periconi raised three daughters and have three grandsons.

She has served as President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Bay Shore since 1995 and was appointed Executive Director of the Bay Shore Business District in 1997 and sits on the Suffolk County Downtown Revitalization Citizens Advisory Committee.

"Donna has always understood the importance of community. She is an extraordinarily focused person, willing to take on any project put before her, and equipped with the tenacity and energy to see it through to the end" – said Barraga.
