MEDIA ADVISORY

The Suffolk County Academy of Law, the educational arm of the Suffolk County Bar Association, will present a seminar on the Suffolk County Farmland Preservation Program. The program was developed by Suffolk County's Law Department & Farmland Committee.

WHEN: Tuesday, September 16, 2014

TIME: 5 pm- 7pm

WHERE: Kermit W. Graf Cornell Cooperative Extension Building, 1st Floor
Conference Room, 423 Griffing Ave, Suite 100, Riverhead, NY

This special seminar will cover the history, intent, rules, regulations, and acquisition process for Suffolk County's Farmland Preservation Program. Participants will gain an understanding of the County's program to purchase developmental rights to maintain farmland and how to represent those involved in the process. The presentation should prove of interest for virtually all Suffolk County lawyers, but especially for municipal, land-use, real property, environmental, and estate planning attorneys.

MCLE CREDIT: 2 Hours (professional practice) + Optional Additional Hour for Observation of Farmland Committee Meeting (Non-Transitional and Transitional)
Instructional Level: Basic/Intermediate

Pre-registration is required. Please visit scba.org or call 631-234-5588 to register for the seminar or more information.
