MEDIA ADVISORY

Southold Town and Legislator Al Krupski to Host Community Forum on Helicopter Noise

Supervisor Scott Russell and the Town Board will host a public meeting with Suffolk County Legislator Al Krupski for a continued discussion and overview of the development of solutions since 2014 to address noise abatement and the reduction of helicopter traffic.

Speakers include Kevin Dowling, Legislative Aide for Congressman Lee Zeldin's office, Supervisor Larry Cantwell, Town of East Hampton, Kathy Cunningham of the Quiet Skies Coalition, representatives from the Southold Town Helicopter Committee, and several Citizen Advisory Council members from communities of the South Fork.

In an effort to accommodate all interested parties, panelists will speak for a total of five minutes and residents will have three minutes to ask questions or offer comments.

Thursday, August 13th at 6:30 p.m.
Southold Town Recreation Center
970 Peconic Lane, Peconic
