ROCKY POINT, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker marched in the 62nd Annual Rocky Point St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 11. The parade was attended by 40,000 people from across Long Island.

“The Rocky Point St. Patrick's Day Parade has been a staple of our community dating back to 1950,” said Legislator Anker. “I thank the Friends of St. Patrick for their tremendous dedication and effort in organizing the parade every year. I also congratulate Jeff Davis on being named Grand Marshal. Jeff is an outstanding community member and business owner in Rocky Point.”

Several weeks ago, Legislator Anker helped organize a meeting at her office with the Suffolk Police Department, Brookhaven Highway Department, Public Safety, Friends of St. Patrick and Councilwoman Jane Bonner to go over parade logistics and details.
