HAUPPAUGE, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker was invited to speak before the Suffolk County Women's Advisory Commission on April 3rd at the H. Lee Dennison Building in Hauppauge.

"It was a pleasure to speak before the Women's Advisory Commission," said Legislator Anker. "Sharing ideas on how to improve services to women in Suffolk County is vitally important to me and I look forward to continue working with the Commission on various projects."

The Suffolk County Women's Advisory Commission is composed of a cross-section of the community of women. The Commission suggests programs, advises the Office of Women's Services on policy and advocates for the betterment of the women of Suffolk County.
