MEDFORD, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker helped celebrate the Girl Scouts of America’s 100th birthday on May 19th at Country Fair Park in Medford. The all-day event brought Girl Scout troops from across Suffolk County to enjoy a picnic, rides and games.

“As a former scout leader, it was exciting to help celebrate their 100 year anniversary,” said Legislator Anker. “Their commitment, dedication and service to Suffolk is greatly appreciated and I’m looking forward to supporting their mission for many years to come.”

The Girl Scouts of Suffolk County has served more than 40,000 girls and 9,000 adult volunteers since 1968-making it the largest youth-serving agency on Long Island. For more information on the Girl Scouts of Suffolk County, visit www.gssc.us
