Anker Supports Sound Beach Civic Scholarship Fund

SOUND BEACH, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker attended Sound Beach Civic Association’s 4th Annual Scholarship Fund, Food Fair and Chinese Auction at the Sound Beach Fire House on May 20th. Funds raised from the event will be awarded as scholarships to two students (one from Miller Place HS and one from Rocky Point HS) in the amount of $1,000 each.

“This is a great community event that raises funds for a good cause in helping two students with college costs,” said Legislator Anker. “I thank Bea and her team as well as the local businesses who donated to make this event a success!”
