Legislator Anker Attends SCCC Commencement Ceremony

BRENTWOOD, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker attended Suffolk County Community College’s Commencement Ceremony at the Brentwood Campus on May 20th. The graduating class, 4,012 students, was the largest in the college’s history. The college has 23,000 enrolled students.

“This was my first Suffolk Community College commencement since becoming Chair of the county’s Education and Information Technology committee,” said Legislator Anker. “I am so proud of the graduating students and because of the quality education Suffolk Community College has afforded them, I am confident they will move on to great things.”
