Legislator Sarah Anker Partners with Long Island Cares At Rocky Point Summer Concert Series

Rocky Point, NY – On Tuesday, July 10th, Legislator Sarah Anker welcomed residents to the 2012 Rocky Point Summer Concert Series. Held at St. Anthony’s of Padua Church in Rocky Point, hundreds of community members gathered to enjoy the music of Motown performed by Jerome “City” Smith and City Sounds Music.

“Everyone enjoyed an incredible evening of great music and fun,” said Legislator Anker. “I’m thrilled to be able to sponsor an event that provides outdoor family entertainment for the residents of Rocky Point and surrounding communities.”

Additionally, Legislator Anker has partnered with the Long Island Cares Food Bank in Hauppauge. Concert goers are asked to bring donations of non-perishable food items and pet food.

All concerts will be held on Tuesday evenings at St. Anthony’s of Padua Church at 7:30 p.m. The concerts are:

- July 24 - Beatles Tribute Band - Strawberry Fields
- July 31 - Swingtime Big Band
- August 21 - Billy Joel Tribute Band - Big Shot
