Legislator Sarah Anker Promotes Neighborhood Watch at Sound Beach Civic

Police Officer Yovino, Sound Beach Civic Vice President Bill Pellenz, Legislator Sarah Anker, and Sound Beach President Bea Ruberto at August 13th Civic Association Meeting.

Sound Beach, NY- Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker and Police Officer Yovino attended the Sound Beach Civic Association's meeting on August 13th to discuss the Suffolk County Police Department's Neighborhood Watch program. Officer Yovino provided the civic association with information regarding local police issues and current updates regarding the Neighborhood Watch Community in Sound Beach.

According to Legislator Anker, "the community neighborhood watch organizations are a vital asset to the Suffolk County Police Department and assist in the continuation of public safety."

Additional guests at Monday's meeting included the North Shore Library Director, Laura Hawry and the library Adult Program Coordinator, Salvatore Filosa. They provided an overview of library services and resources available to Sound Beach residents.

The Sound Beach Civic Association meets the second Monday of every month at the Sound Beach Fire Department.
