Legislator Anker Visits Long Island Pet Expo

Brentwood, NY, March 2013 –Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker attended the Long Island Pet Expo at Suffolk County Community College Expo Center.

From March 1 through 3, residents enjoyed educational and entertaining performances, seminars, and a wide selection of pet services, and adoption opportunities.

“I was delighted to attend the Long Island Pet Expo at Suffolk County Community College,” said Legislator Anker. “It is a fantastic event for families where they can learn about animals, and research the many adoption opportunities available throughout Suffolk County. I would like to thank the Long Island Pet Expo for putting together such an informative and engaging event.”

The Family Pet Expo is designed to educate and entertain the public about the wonderful world of pet ownership.
