Legislator Anker Visits Historical Home

Legislator Anker presents a certificate of recognition to the Miller Place-Mount Sinai Historical Society

Miller Place NY, May 2013 – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker recently visited the William Miller House to congratulate the Miller Place-Mount Sinai Historical Society on receiving a grant from the County. The grant, which was distributed for community development, will be utilized to further the preservation of local history and support the work of the organization.

“The Miller Place-Mount Sinai Historical Society does a wonderful job of promoting our communities rich heritage,” said Legislator Anker.

Beginning June 1st, the Miller Place-Mount Sinai Historical Society will offer tours of the historic William Miller house on Saturdays between 10am and 2pm. For more information call (631) 476-5742.
