Recognizing the Good Deeds of Rocky Point's Crossing Guard

Legislator Anker and the Rocky Point Board of Education Recognize Suffolk County Crossing Guard Lisa Lawry

Rocky Point, NY; September 2013 –On Monday, September 30th, Legislator Sarah Anker joined the Rocky Point Board of Education in recognizing Suffolk County Crossing Guard Lisa Lawry for going above and beyond the call of duty. When the traffic signal at the intersection of Route 25A and Rocky-Point Yaphank Road failed on Thursday, September 26th, Ms. Lawry went out into the very busy intersection, equipped with only her stop sign, and bravely directed a total of eight lanes of traffic and four turn lanes.

“I am proud to recognize Ms. Lisa Lawry for her courageous actions,” said Legislator Anker. “Her dedication to the community has ensured the safety of our children.”

The Suffolk County Crossing Guard is a Unit of the Suffolk County Police Department. For more information about the Suffolk County Police Department, visit <http://www.suffolkcountyny.gov/departments/police.aspx>.
