Welcoming Longwood High School's New Athletic Field

Yaphank, NY – October 2013 – On Saturday, October 26, Legislator Sarah Anker attended Longwood High School's ribbon cutting ceremony in celebrating the completion of a new multi-purpose athletic field.

"I am proud to join the Longwood School District in this ribbon cutting ceremony for its new facilities," said Legislator Anker. "The multi-purpose athletic field is a great addition to the district's athletic program and will enhance the experience of Longwood's student athletes."

Longwood's Varsity Football team squared off against Brentwood for the first game enjoying the new field. For more information about Longwood Central School District's events, visit the calendar at <http://www.longwood.k12.ny.us/cal.html>.
