

PRESS RELEASE FROM
LEGISLATOR SARAH ANKER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

June 30th, 2014

Contact: Kim Tucker
Office: 631-854-1600
Email: Kimberly.tucker@suffolkcountyny.gov

Legislator Anker Congratulates Rocky Point Eagle Scouts

Rocky Point, NY – June 2014 –On Saturday, June 28th, Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker joined Boy Scout Troop 244 of Rocky Point in congratulating Kyle Blessing, David Luglio, Troy Richards, and Kyle Seda on earning their Eagle badges.

“I’d like to congratulate these young men on achieving their Eagle Badges,” said Legislator Anker. “Their accomplishments will inspire younger members of Troop 244 to continue their journey in scouting. I wish them much continued success in their future endeavors.”

To fulfill the necessary Eagle Badge requirements, each scout was required to complete a special project within the community. David planned and supervised the construction of a walkway at the Rose Caracappa Senior Center in Mount Sinai. Kyle Blessing constructed portable stages for Trinity Lutheran Church in Rocky Point which will serve as a useful addition during plays and pageants. Kyle Seda built and installed wooden benches for the Shoreham Village Centennial at the Shoreham Village Country Club. Troy supervised the demolition and replacement of a fence at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Rocky Point.