Mount Sinai, NY; November 2014 –Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker is partnering with the North Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce to encourage residents to shop local this holiday season. Throughout the month of November, residents who shop at local businesses will be eligible for prizes and much more. On November 29th, Small Business Saturday, the prize drawings will take place at noon at Echo Pharmacy in Miller Place.

“I’m proud to join the Chamber in supporting our neighborhood businesses,” said Legislator Anker. “When you spend your money with our local merchants, you are investing in the strength of our community. When shopping for the holidays this season, please remember to keep your money where your house is.”

To enter into the prize drawing, visit a participating local business and leave your name, address, phone, and email contact before November 29th. For a full list of participating businesses visit <http://www.northbrookhavenchamber.org/Portals/0/Nov%202014%20Participating.pdf>
