Legislator Anker Celebrates Opening Day with North Shore Little League

Rocky Point, NY; November 2013 – On Saturday, April 5th, Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker joined more than 800 baseball and softball players, coaches, and parents of the North Shore Little League for the league’s 51st Annual Opening Day Ceremonies at the little league’s complex in Rocky Point.

“There’s no better way to welcome the spring season than Opening Day at North Shore Little League,” Legislator Anker said. “I’d like thank the parents, volunteers, and coaches who have volunteered their time to make the program so enjoyable and successful for our children.”

Following the annual Parade of Players, Legislator Anker presented the league with a certificate of congratulations. For more information about North Shore Little League visit www.nsl.teampages.com.
