Legislator Anker Celebrates Duck Pond Day with Wading River Community

Suffolk County Legislator Sarah S. Anker with Girl Scout Troop 1569 of Shoreham Wading River and volunteers of the Wading River Duck Pond Day.

Wading River, NY- On Sunday, June 7, Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker celebrated the 21st annual Duck Pond Day at the Wading River Duck Pond. The celebration, held annually by the Wading River-Shoreham Chamber of Commerce, began with a 5k race in the morning, followed by a parade in the afternoon, and a crafts and local business fair. Following the parade, Legislator Anker, along with members of the Wading River- Shoreham Chamber of Commerce honored the family of the late Thomas Cutinella, and the Shoreham Wading River football team.

“The Wading River Duck Pond Day is a wonderful event,” said Legislator Anker. “It’s a day that brings our community together and provides an opportunity to showcase and recognize the many great accomplishments our residents can be proud of.”

Duck Pond Day is hosted by the Wading River- Shoreham Chamber of Commerce. For more information please visit <http://wrschamber.org/> .
