Legislator Anker Congratulates Eagle Scout Troop 161

Wading River, NY- On March 21, Legislator Sarah Anker joined Boy Scout Troop 161 of Shoreham in congratulating Matthew C. Epp, Liam G. Lane, William R. McCarrick, Seth C. Mohl, and Sean M. Scarbrough on earning Eagle Scout at St. John’s Parish Hall in Wading River. Legislator Anker presented the new Eagle Scouts with proclamations celebrating their achievement.

“I’d like to congratulate these young men on attaining the rank of Eagle Scout,” said Legislator Anker. “Their accomplishments serve as an inspiration to younger members of Troop 161 to continue their adventures in scouting, and I wish them all the best in their future endeavors.”

Matthew’s Eagle Project involved rebuilding the stable area next to the Wading River Congregational Church to make it safer for the community. Liam constructed a sitting area for Camp Pa-Qua-Tuck in Center Moriches, a camp for children with disabilities and special needs, for his Eagle Scout Project. William built a fence on both sides of a 25-foot walkway at the administration building at Calverton National Cemetery, for his Eagle Project. Seth’s Eagle Project involved raising money for Southold Animal Shelter, where his family adopted their dog, Nixie. Sean’s Eagle project involved restoring a triptych monument located at the Shire of Our Lady of the Island in Manorville.
