Legislator Anker Congratulates Middle Island Eagle Scout

(L-R) Troop 433 Assistant Scoutmaster Ed Heinrichs, Middle Island Civic Association President Gail Lynch-Bailey, Troop 433 Eagle Scout Joseph Woodard, Legislator Sarah Anker, Troop 433 Scoutmaster Brian Heinrichs, Middle Island Fire District Commissioner Kenneth Brewster, and Boy Scouts of America Suffolk County Council Commissioner Tim Green

Middle Island, NY- On April 26, Legislator Sarah Anker congratulated Boy Scout Troop 433’s Joseph Woodard on achieving Eagle Scout rank. Legislator Anker presented the new Eagle Scout with a proclamation celebrating his achievement.

“Middle Island's Troop 433 has an impressive history of graduating a number of Eagles Scouts, and I congratulate Joseph on his achievement,” said Legislator Anker. “His accomplishment is an inspiration to younger members of his troop to continue their adventures in scouting.”

"Joe's bench project at Bartlett provides a perfect place for park goers to relax and reflect upon the contributions of all our Veterans," said Middle Island President Gail Lynch-Bailey.

To fulfill the necessary Eagle Scout requirements, Joseph led a crew of fellow scouts to create four benches that now stand in Middle Island’s Bartlett Pond Veterans Memorial Park.
