Legislator Anker Supporting Rocky Point's Relay for Life

Legislator Sarah Anker with Rocky Point's Relay for Life volunteers.

Rocky Point, New York- On Saturday June 13, Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker attended Rocky Point's Relay for Life at the Joseph A Edgar Intermediate School. The event, which provides community support and raises awareness about cancer raised over $45,000 toward the cause.

"I'd like to thank the volunteers and local businesses who attended this year's Relay for Life of Rocky Point for their dedication and commitment for cancer advocacy," said Legislator Sarah Anker.

Rocky Point Relay for Life provided Long Island's first Relay for Life event. This year's event had a total of 21 teams with 128 participants. For further information on Relay for life of Rocky Point, please visit:
