Spooky Tour Fundraiser to Support Historical Society

Miller Place, NY — Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker is proud to support the Miller Place-Mt. Sinai Historical Society as they host their annual Spooky Lantern Tours on October 23rd, 24th and 30th. The tours will last about 75-90 minutes and will give participants insight into Miller Place's historic district. Scary stories about local landmarks will also be shared with participants.

“Local historical societies are vital to the preservation and restoration of landmarks,” said Legislator Anker. “It is important to supports their efforts in order to protect the character and history of our local community.”

Tours are offered at 4:00 PM, 4:30 PM, 5:45 PM and 6:15 PM. The cost is $10 per person and all proceeds go toward restorations and preservation of local historic homes, including the Miller House. To reserve a spot for the Spooky Lantern Tours and to learn more about the historical society, please visit: <http://www.mpmshistoricalsociety.org/>.
