students, administrators, teachers and parents from Half Hollow Hills meet with local leaders in both one-on-one situations and as a group to become more informed on the legislative issues that impact the school district, ask questions and offer suggestions.

“The Half Hollow Hills Legislative Brunch is always a great forum because of the wonderful sharing of ideas that take place,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “It is imperative that we keep informed about what is on everyone’s minds so that we may seek ways to turn those thoughts into legislative initiatives. As always, I was impressed with the knowledge and interest of the high school students. They are an excellent reflection of the Half Hollow Hills School District and our entire community.”
