NBHS Senior Receives Citizenship Award From Legislator Lou D'Amaro

(NORTH BABYLON, NY... June 1, 2010) – North Babylon High School Senior Michael Cuomo was recently honored with a Proclamation from Suffolk County Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-North Babylon) for receiving the Citizenship Award at the school's 2010 Senior Awards Night. Cuomo is a member of both the National Honor Society and the North Babylon High School "Students for a Better World," a group of concerned students who raise awareness and money in support of charitable organizations throughout Suffolk County and around the world. During his high school career, he has also participated in several other volunteer activities including the "Ride for Life" Cure for ALS and the "Secret Santa for Underprivileged Children." This fall, he will be attending Farmingdale State University.

"Michael Cuomo truly epitomizes what it means to be a good citizen," said Legislator D'Amaro. "He continuously finds the time to contribute to the enrichment of our community and make Suffolk County a better place to live. I was privileged to present him with this well-deserved honor and wish him much continued success."
