D'Amaro Welcomes Cory Home Delivery to Melville

Founded in Brooklyn by Joseph Cory in 1934, the company today is one of the oldest and largest specialized home delivery carriers in America. Currently in its third generation of family management and ownership, Cory serves many of the top 100 furniture, appliance and electronics retailers in the United States, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Cory dispatches a modern fleet of 500 customized vehicles daily, delivering more than $2.1 billion of consumer products to more than 1.6 million consumers annually.

“It is encouraging to see companies locate on Long Island and add jobs to our region during these difficult economic times,” D’Amaro said. “I welcome Cory to the community and thank them for selecting the Town of Huntington for their Long Island base of operations.”
