Selected by school administrators as “a student of good character who gives of him or herself for the betterment of the school and/or the community,” Ms. Cohen is active in a number of local and school-based organizations including the National Honor Society, Interact Club, Art Club, Fashion Club, Amnesty International and Animal Friends & Advocates. She tutors younger students and has participated in the district’s Unity Fair, Safe Halloween and Relay for Life events. Ms. Cohen has also volunteered her time at Evergreen Senior Citizen Complex, Temple Beth Torah and Sunrise Assisted Living.

“Melissa Cohen is an outstanding citizen who has altruistically started on a path towards a lifetime of active community involvement,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “I wish Ms. Cohen much continued success and am confident that we will be hearing more great things from her in the future.”
