Babylon Legislators Join Veterans At First Hope for the Warriors Golf Fundraiser

(EAST FARMINGDALE, NY... August 9, 2010) – Established in 2006, Hope for the Warriors is a national not-for-profit organization that supports wounded veterans and their families by providing for their physical and emotional short and long-term needs. Suffolk Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-North Babylon) recently joined local organization representative Jack Caffey, Jr. and fellow Babylon Legislators Wayne Horsley (D-Babylon) and DuWayne Gregory (D-Amityville) at the First Annual Long Island Hope for the Warriors Golf Classic and Dinner.

The event raised more than $15,000 in support of the Hope for the Warriors “impassioned drive to build hope beyond recovery.”

“We must continue to do all that we can for our servicemen and women, as well as their families, who have sacrificed so much to protect our freedoms,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “I thank Jack Caffey and the Hope for the Warriors organization for their immense passion and drive to ensure that these heroes are cared for with the respect and dignity they rightfully deserve, and congratulate them on a highly successful event.”

Hope for the Warriors is now preparing for the Third Annual Long Island Run for the Warriors which will be held on Nov. 14, 2010 at Babylon Town Hall. For more information about the run or the organization, visit www.hopeforthewarriors.org.
