Presiding Officer Wayne Horsley (D-Babylon) and Steve Stern (D-Dix Hills) in a special ceremony administered by County Clerk Judith Pascale.

“I thank the fine, hard-working residents of the 17th district for electing me to another term as their Legislator,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “I have gotten to know so many of them during my past six years in office and it remains a privilege and an honor to represent them in County office. I look forward to continuing to work collaboratively with DuWayne Gregory, Wayne Horsley, Steve Stern and the entire Legislature as we face the many challenges ahead.”

Legislator Stern added, ““I want to thank our community for its continued trust and I look forward to working with my neighbors, my colleagues and our new County Executive on important new initiatives to improve our local economy, protect our taxpayers and preserve our environment and our quality of life.”

D’Amaro, who was born and raised in Deer Park and now resides in North Babylon will continue to serve residents of the Towns of Babylon and Huntington, including parts of Deer Park, North Babylon, West Babylon, Dix Hills, Melville, Huntington Station and South Huntington. He urges constituents to contact him at his district office by calling (631) 854-4433 or by sending an email to lou.damaro@suffolkcountyny.gov should the need arise.
