Suffolk County Senior Citizens Discount Cards Now Available at Legislator D'Amaro's Office

HUNTINGTON STATION, NY... May 22, 2012) – Suffolk Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-Huntington Station) wants to inform residents that Suffolk County Senior Citizens Identification Cards are now available at his district office. The free cards for residents ages 60 and older are required for the reduced fare on the Suffolk County Bus and also can be used to receive discounts at many area businesses.

Eligible and interested seniors can receive their cards by bringing proof of age and residence to Legislator D'Amaro's office, 130 West Jericho Turnpike in Huntington Station, Monday through Friday between 9 am and 5 pm. The newly-revised edition of the Suffolk County Office for the Aging Program & Services Guide for Senior Citizens is also available for pickup at the office. For more information, call Legislator D'Amaro's office at (631) 854-4433.

"I want to ensure that our seniors receive access to all of the discounts and programs provided by the County's Office for the Aging," said Legislator D'Amaro. "Information about these programs is conveniently available right in my district office, and I encourage interested residents to drop by and visit."
