Babylon) for receiving the Citizenship Award at the school's 2012 Senior Awards Night. The award is annually presented by Legislator D'Amaro to a student who "gives of him or herself for the betterment of the school and/or the community."

A four-year member and two-year captain of the school's Football team, TidQuan is active in the NBHS Renaissance Club, Men's Empowerment Group and National Honor Society. He was captain of the Track & Field team, coached youth basketball and volunteered for Hoops for Heart and the "Letters to Santa" programs. TidQuan remains active in the Suffolk PAL Boxing Club and was the 2012 recipient of the Suffolk Zone Award, a recognition that honors outstanding high school students for their exceptional physical education achievements, academic performance, community service and leadership and character traits. He will be attending the University of West Virginia and intends to major in computer engineering.

"TidQuan Grant is a role model for his peers who demonstrates the qualities associated with being an outstanding citizen," said Legislator D'Amaro. "It is a privilege to recognize him for all that he does to enrich our community and make Suffolk County a better place to live. I wish him much continued success."
