The SUNY Binghamton-bound student is on the honor roll and active in SADD and Amnesty International. Richard plays for the Varsity Ice and Roller Hockey teams and volunteers at the Farmingdale Public Library. He recently earned the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout.

“Richard Lazaro is widely recognized by teachers and students alike as a bright, energetic, compassionate and committed young adult,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “It is a privilege to recognize him for his many volunteer and service activities that help enrich our community and make Suffolk County a better place to live. I wish him much continued success.”
