Suffolk Legislator Lou D'Amaro Appointed Chair of the Legislature's Ways & Means Committee, Also Named Vice Chair of Parks, Economic Development Committees

(HUNTINGTON STATION, NY... January 28, 2013) – Suffolk Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-Huntington Station), who is currently in his fourth term in office, has been tapped by Presiding Officer William J. Lindsay to serve as Chairman of the Legislature's Ways & Means committee, a high profile committee that oversees the day-to-day operations of County government and is responsible for implementing and enforcing all the laws of Suffolk County. He has also been named Vice Chairman of both the Parks & Recreation and Economic Development & Energy committees.

"I am honored that Presiding Officer Lindsay has demonstrated his trust in me by appointing me Chair of the vital Ways & Means Committee and Vice Chair of two other very important committees," said Legislator D'Amaro. "These assignments will enable me to continue focusing on my main priorities of protecting taxpayers and controlling the size of government. I look forward to continuing to work cooperatively in a bi-partisan manner with my legislative colleagues, as well as with County Executive Steve Bellone, in the coming year."
