Parade on Monday, May 27. Suffolk County Legislator Lou D’Amaro (D-North Babylon) joined with a host of dignitaries, including Babylon Supervisor Rich Schaffer, Councilmembers Tony Martinez, Jackie Gordon and Tom Donnelly, Town Clerk Carol Quirk and fellow Suffolk Legislator DuWayne Gregory to honor those who made the ultimate sacrifice to protect our freedoms. The Knights of Columbus – Our Lady of Rosary Council, the Deer Park Lions Club and the Constantino Brumidi Lodge were among the many community organizations who also marched.

The Parade stepped off from Lake Avenue and West 22nd Street and proceeded east to Deer Park Avenue before turning north and ending at the memorial stone at Deer Park Avenue School for the veterans’ remembrance ceremony.

“It is vitally important that we give thanks to all of the members of our armed forces who fought for the freedoms that we hold so near and dear,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “We stand here today and every day because of them and owe a debt of gratitude for the sacrifices they made to ensure our way of life.”
