(HUNTINGTON STATION, NY... May 29, 2013) – The streets were filled with red, white and blue pride as the Huntington community shared in the honoring of our nation's veterans at the annual Huntington Memorial Day Parade, hosted by the Nathan Hale VFW Post #1469 on Monday, May 27. Suffolk County Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-Huntington Station) joined with a host of dignitaries and local community leadership organizations in the march from the “Big H” Shopping Center to Huntington’s Main Street via West Carver and Green Streets.

Other dignitaries in the parade included Huntington Supervisor Frank Petrone, riding in a blue convertible and Suffolk Legislator William Spencer (C-Centerport), Huntington Councilmembers Mark Cuthbertson and Mark Mayoka and Assemblyman Chad Lupinacci.

“It is vitally important that we give thoughts and thanks to all of our veterans who fight for the freedoms that we all hold so near and dear,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “We stand here today and every day because of them and owe a debt of gratitude for the sacrifices they have made, and continue to make, for us.”
