with the Citizenship Award at the school's 2013 Senior Awards Night. The award is annually presented by Legislator D'Amaro to a student who "gives of him or herself for the betterment of the school and/or the community."

Ms. Robarge was an active participant in the ALS Ride for Life Walk throughout high school and teaches dance classes to elementary level students. She was a member of the JV softball team, girls gymnastic and track teams, kickline and yearbook committee. Ms. Robarge will be attending Philadelphia University in the fall where she intends on studying interior design.

"It is a privilege to recognize and honor Rachel Robarge for her many contributions to the North Babylon community," said Legislator D'Amaro. "She personifies what it means to be a good citizen and I know she will continue to inspire others with her spirit and determination."
