Concerned Civic Association (SECCA) at their annual Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser, held on Saturday, June 22nd at the George Washington School in Deer Park.

Invited by SECCA President Dr. Tyrone Bennett, Legislator D'Amaro met with several community members at the event which also featured music, entertainment and a car wash. All proceeds from the fundraiser will support SECCA programs.

"I want to thank Dr. Tyrone Bennett and all of the SECCA members who attended this great event," said Legislator D'Amaro. "The pride in the community is evident. I look forward to keeping the lines of communication open with this active civic association as we work together to address issues of local interest."
