questions from business and community leaders at the Huntington Chamber of Commerce's 2014 Government Reports Breakfast.

In this forum, attendees remain seated as the invited electeds move from table to table discussing issues of interest and concern. The annual event was held this year on Friday, October 31st at the Huntington Hilton in Melville.

"Every year, the Huntington Chamber's Government Reports Breakfast provides us, as elected officials, a unique opportunity to really learn what is on the minds of community and business leaders," said Legislator D'Amaro. "The comfortable exchange of ideas often leads to legislative initiatives to benefit both local businesses and County residents. As always, I thank Chamber Executive Director Ellen O'Brien, board members and the entire Huntington business community for another enlightening morning."
