Legislator D'Amaro Informs Residents:
Suffolk-County Sponsored Job Fair
Scheduled for Dix Hills

(HUNTINGTON STATION... February 26, 2015) - The economy is showing signs of recovery yet the job market remains competitive and many people are still seeking employment. Accordingly, Suffolk County Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-Huntington Station) wants to remind community members that, under the auspices of the Suffolk County Workforce Investment Board, the County offers a variety of programs to assist residents in their job searches through the One-Stop Employment Center. Among the services available are the County's award-winning Job Fairs, with the next one scheduled for Thursday, March 5 at the Half Hollow Hills Community Library from 1 to 4 pm.

The Job Fair will be held at the Dix Hills branch of the library, located at 55 Vanderbilt Parkway in Dix Hills. Organizations scheduled to attend include Aflac, Amneal Pharmaceuticals, BJG Electronics, Briarcliffe College, Bright Star Care, Cold Spring Harbor Labs, Coldwell Banker, Comfort Keepers, Fairway Market, Horizon Staffing Solutions, New York Life Insurance Company, Positive Promotions, Ryder, SCPD, Suffolk County Civil Service, Sears, the Urban League Mature Workers Program and many others.
