(NORTH BABYLON, NY... April 13, 2015) – Suffolk Legislator Lou D’Amaro (D-North Babylon) joined County Executive Steve Bellone, Babylon Supervisor Rich Schaffer, other local elected officials, parents and hundreds of young sluggers as the North Babylon Youth League (NBYL) opened the 2015 baseball and softball season with its annual parade and celebration under sunny skies on Saturday, April 11.

Under the direction of NBYL President Ken Primm, the parade for the league’s 58^h season stepped off from North Babylon High School and concluded with a celebration at Phelps Lane Park. Others attending the festivities included Babylon Town Deputy Supervisor Tony Martinez, Councilman Tom Donnelly and Suffolk County Legislator Kevin McCaffrey.

Established in 1957 and chartered through the Williamsport Little League, the North Babylon Youth League provides baseball and softball programs to youths ages 5 to 18. Visit the website www.nbyl.com for schedules and more information about the league.

“After the harsh winter that we had, it’s great to be able to celebrate the true start of spring with the opening of the youth baseball season,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “This is always an exciting time, and as a North Babylon parent, I look forward to seeing our children have fun on the fields. I thank the North Babylon Youth League directors, volunteers, coaches and the entire community for supporting and nurturing our players. Play ball!”
